

To the Members of the California State Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1354 without my signature.

This bill is unnecessary because nothing in current law prohibits the Superintendent of Public Instruction from performing the evaluation proposed in this bill. Moreover, a recent study completed this year already evaluated the adequacy of school construction grants. Therefore another evaluation would be duplicative of previous efforts.

For these reasons, I am unable to sign this bill.

Sincerely,

Arnold Schwarzenegger